

Trickett Hall Renovation and Addition

Dickinson School of Law Relocation Phase II - Carlisle, PA

Completion in 2009

Cost: $40,000,000

Client: Polshek Partnership Architects

Role: Associate Architect

234 Liberty Street

Harrisburg, PA 17101

717.230.9660

Fax 717.230.9664

www.oparchitecture.com

The Pennsylvania State University Dickinson School of Law expansion project is located in Carlisle, Pennsylvania, site of the original Law School, and a new campus to be constructed at University Park in State College.

In Carlisle, an extensive renovation and expansion of the historic 1917 Trickett Hall facility will provide 80,000 square feet of space at a projected cost of $40,000,000. OPA is teamed with the Polshek Partnership for design and construction at both locations. Both facilities will be LEED certified.